

Thinking of returning to nursing? It's never been easier

Come back to a nursing career in general practice to:

- advance the skills and knowledge you gained in your initial training;
- progress your career;
- work flexible, more family-friendly hours; and
- make a real difference to people in your community.

Return to General Practice Nursing courses are open to all previously registered nurses, regardless of whether you have experience in general practice.

Fully funded places, covering course fees and an additional financial package to cover expenses, are available at:

- City University
- Kingston and St George's University of London
